

NEW YORK MOOSERS TO FIGHT ON HUGHES

LEADERS THREATEN COURT ACTION IF STATE COMMITTEE INDORSES HIM.

INJUNCTION AND MANDAMUS

These Are the Weapons Parker's Cohorts Will Resort To if Necessary.

(Associated Press)
Syracuse, N. Y., July 22—Progressive leaders here for the meeting of the state committee today threaten to go to the courts if any action is taken to place the names of Hughes or any of the republican presidential electors on the progressive ballot in New York state.
Chairman O'Connell of the New York County committee said joint mandamus and injunction proceedings will be brought if attempts are made to carry out in the state the action of the progressive national committee. The state committee, according to O'Connell, will be enjoined from placing the names of Hughes and Fairbanks on the state ticket and will be mandamus to meet and name presidential electors nominee for Vice President.
In spite of O'Connell's prediction the indications are that Hughes will be endorsed. Bainbridge-Colby issued the following statement: "There will be a fight, with the vote uncertain. The effort to garrote and coerce the progressive party will be resisted here and elsewhere and will fail."

"Secretary of War Baker declared such men may return home, and on that account I cannot allow a mother's pension to the wife of such a soldier."

DEATH RATE REACHED CLIMAX

Largest Number of Infantile Paralysis Victims Today.
(Associated Press)
New York, July 22—There were more deaths from infantile paralysis during the 24 hours ending at 10 a. m. today than at any time since the inception of the epidemic; 39 deaths and 135 new cases were reported.
Dixon's only two cases of infantile paralysis, the Spielman children, continue to show marked improvement.

Giant Smoke Stack At State Colony Is Rising Rapidly

People traveling the River road to Grand Detour have looked across the river toward the epileptic colony and wondered at the change in the skyline, for a great smokestack points up like a giant finger from the buildings at the big state institutions, which is under construction north of the city. The big stack, which runs up from the power house at the colony, is only part way up even now, and when completed it will be a landmark for a great distance in all directions. It is about 150 feet high now and when finished the top will be 225 feet in the air. It is built of brick on the inside with hollow tile facing. It will be eight feet in diameter at the top when completed.

Men Look Small.
From a little distance off, one can see tiny figures that look like dolls moving about on the top of the structure. They are full grown men, however, and they are getting about eight dollars a day, these brick masons, for their work, which is none too much, we should say, for that kind of a job. Only four can work on the top now, since the opening at the top is narrowing, but they progress rapidly. They have been working on the job about three weeks and the work will

I.B. COUNTRYMAN MAY HAVE TO SELL HERD

INABILITY TO GET A MANAGER MAY CAUSE HIM TO GIVE UP HOLSTEINS.

HEIFER AND CALF BRING $500

Herd Has Taken Many Years of Careful Raising and Breeding—Editor's Praise.

Does it pay to raise pure bred cattle? I. B. Countryman answers the question in the affirmative. Recently Mr. Countryman sold a two-year-old heifer and calf for $500. But when you consider the years and money and time devoted by this prominent farmer of Dixon, that does not seem such a large sum of money to get out of a pure bred cow. Mr. Countryman raises Holstein cattle and his herd is one of the best in the state, if not in the country.

Mr. Countryman's herd passed perfectly in the tuberculosis test. All his cattle are free from tuberculosis, he was notified by Dr. E. O. Dyson, the state veterinarian at Springfield and within a few days this veteran farmer will receive a certificate of the standing of his herd, issued by the State Board of Livestock Commissioners.

Won Nice Prize.
A day or so ago Mr. Countryman was notified by the Holstein Friesian association that his prize money for the past fiscal year amounted to $24.00, and he has received a check for that sum. The association is America-wide and to win a prize indicates skill and experience in raising cattle, absolutely pure breeds being necessary to win recognition from the association for production.

Some time ago the editor of the Prairie Farmer wrote a story for his paper telling of what he saw in a 400 mile automobile trip through eleven prosperous Illinois counties. The editor visited Dixon, dined at the Nachusa tavern and visited the farm owned and managed by I. B. Countryman.

Editor Sees Cattle.
A portion of the story follows: "We dropped down into the beautiful Rock river valley and had dinner at Dixon, one of the prettiest of northern Illinois towns. After dinner we drove out to I. B. Countryman's Holstein farm. Countryman believes in good blood and good feeding. For ten years he has been building some

WRESTLER WAS YELLOW

The management of the carnival company playing at Rock Falls offered $10 to any man who would wrestle the company's champion. "Red" Wolf, Dixon's champion wrestler, made the trip to Rock Falls Wednesday night and after he has given the "once over" by the carnival wrestler, the traveling champion declined to tackle him.

be completed in about three more. One of the men who has been with the Heine Chimney company, which has the contract for the job, has been doing this perilous work for eleven years and he received $75 per week for his work. C. Veitenhaus is the foreman on the job. The crew from the Heine company completed the chimney at the Alton state institution before coming to Dixon.

Other Building Work.

Several other buildings beside the power house are in course of construction at present at the colony. Among these are the laundry, the bakery and the cold storage plant.

Hundreds of men are at work at the state grounds every day and the big job grows steadily. The blazing sun has turned them all into mahogany colored men and they do not seem to mind the intense heat as much as might be supposed.

Dixon hardly realizes the dimensions this great colony will grow to. There will be over a hundred buildings on the grounds when the work is all done and the 1200 acres will be populated by thousands of people. It will be a city and no small city, either, in itself.

ASYLUM FOR CASEMENT

Washington, However, Has Not Official Information of Step.

Washington, July 22—High officials of the state department said that aside from unofficial rumors which have been current in Washington for a week to the effect that the British government by the order of King George, will send Sir Roger Casement to an asylum instead of executing him on a charge of treason, the department has no information concerning the intentions of the British government in the matter.
The department has neither made an investigation of the rumors, nor made inquiries through Ambassador Page, nor taken any other action in the matter.

LEE MATHIAS WILL RE-ENTER BUSINESS

LEASES ROOM IN THE ROSBROOK BUILDING—TO CONDUCT A GROCERY AND MARKET

Lee Mathias, who has had considerable experience in the grocery business in Dixon, has leased the north store room in the Rosbrook building on Peoria avenue, formerly occupied by the Sanitary bakery, and on or about August 5th he will open a thoroughly up-to-date grocery and market therein. Mr. Mathias has many friends in Dixon and vicinity who will be pleased to learn that he is to re-enter the business from which he was forced by the fire which destroyed the Countryman building Jan. 15th.

A new front will be put in the store room and the interior will be thoroughly remodeled before the new store is opened.

BISHOP MITCHELL ON SUNDAY

New Prelate of Methodist Church Will Preach Sermon Then

One week from today Judge Geo. D. Alden will open the 29th annual session of the Rock River Assembly. His subject will be "The Needs of the Hour." A splendid subject for this time, and an able man to discuss such a subject. Thousands should hear this gifted man next Saturday, July 29th. He is a great lawyer, Dr. Frank Gunsaulus says.
"Judge Alden knows the American situation with its particular demands for a type of manhood which his lectures do much to create and nourish."

Saturday evening the Oxford Company will sing a grand concert. At 7 o'clock the Dixon Moose Band will play a concert at Assembly park.

The First Sunday
Sunday afternoon, the first Sabbath day of the session, Bishop Mitchell of the Methodist church will deliver the sermon-lecture. This will be his first appearance of Bishop Mitchell. His subject will be "The Prize Taker."

Sunday evening, Henry R. Rose of Newark, N. J., will give a program of gems of music, art and eloquence. If the day is favorable, the first Sunday should be one of the best days of the session and the attendance will be very large.

Big Crowd Pleased With the Weekly Open-Air Program.

The largest crowd of the season listened to and enjoyed the concert given by the Chamber of Commerce band at the John Dixon park Friday evening, there being people from Sterling, Rock Falls, Polo, Amboy, Franklin Grove and other surrounding places present. The band played especially well and each number received hearty applause. One gentleman, with a statistical turn of mind, started to count the automobiles around the park during the concert, but when he passed the 260 mark after going a little over half the way around, he quit.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH TO BE REDECORATED

INTERIOR OF CHURCH WILL BE DONE IN OIL OF SOFTENED COLORS.

DURING PASTOR'S VACATION

Plans are being made for the redecoration of the interior of St. Luke's Episcopal church. The plans are not perfected as yet, but the work will be done in oil, in one of the soft tones of gray to lend airiness, space and light. The plan of the architecture of the church calls for simplicity to add to its grandeur and there will be nothing ornate about the decoration. The decorators will take possession of the church during the month of August when the rector, Rev. F. C. Grant, has his vacation. He and Mrs. Grant expect to spend it at Ephraim (Sounds biblically good, doesn't it? But it also promises a delightful vacation) a summer resort north of Sturgeon Bay on the peninsula between Green Bay and Lake Michigan and north of the town of Sturgeon Bay.

Aurora, Ill., July 22—The body of a man, apparently about thirty years old, was found in Fox river at Oswego with all the pockets of the clothing except one turned inside out.
State's Attorney Burkhardt of Kendall county believes the man was robbed and murdered, and is investigating. The only identification mark was a silk handkerchief, in the corner of which the letter "K" was sewed. The man was of light complexion and smooth shaven and weighed about 150 pounds.

The petition will be presented to the Dixon storekeepers merely as an expression of opinion.

National League. Heine Zimmerman has batted his way to a tie for second place among the National League batters, he and Laubert hitting at .326, while Robertson is well in the lead with .349. Zimmerman also leads in total bases with 139. Carey, Pittsburgh, is ahead in stolen bases with 30. Flack, Chicago, in sacrifice hits with 27. THE SKYROCKET

The skyrocket is a quarter mile oar with a thimble full of bang at the end of it. In the first it resembles the earnest young candidate for congress during his campaign and in the after it strongly suggests the disturbance which the candidate makes when he reaches the said congress.

The skyrocket has a large handsome head stuffed with disturbance and tied to a long stick. The stick is not handsome and contributes neither to the noise nor the display. But it always comes back to earth. This is all the skyrocket that returns. The skyrocket leaves the earth with a roar like a contesting delegate demanding its rights and returns with a soft "pump" just like the same delegation anding outside the hall after it has met the committee.

The skyrocket is fired from a long rough. In this it also represents a few politicians. But here the resemblance ends. The rocket leaves willing y. With a tremendous "who-o-o-sh" it leaps into the sky, leaving a long rail of sparks behind it like a college freshman. At the height of 1,000 feet it is a thing of glory and is viewed by all with "oh's" and "ah's." It then bursts and goes out of business like an oil well company after the capital stock has all been subscribed.

The stick returns, however, as we have remarked. The stick doesn't make any noise about returning but does it in an earnest and uniformly successful manner, usually selecting some innocent bystander for a landing place. A good sized rocket stick can hit a prominent citizen back of the ear and render him entirely useless except to the beneficiaries of his life insurance.

It was ever thus. The rocket goes up with a loud roar and merely bores a hole in the self-mending robe of night. The silent, unostentatious stick returns to earth and caves in a citizen with no fuss whatever. The rocket sticks should not be allowed to travel at night without numbers and lights fore and aft. They are no better than automobiles and should get no favor.

The Fourth of July, from which we are just about recovered, would not have been so beautiful without the skyrocket. On the other hand, many an innocent man who has tried to hold a skyrocket in his hand and pat it on the head as it struggled to es-

Lowry-Long Wedding

Youngstown (Ohio) Evening Telegram: The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Long, 165 Princeton Avenue, was the scene of a richly appointed wedding at six thirty last evening (July 12th) when their daughter, Florence Alberta, became the bride of Charles Harrison Lowry, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Lowry, of Dixon, Ill. The Reverend James MacDonald, pastor of the South United Presbyterian church, officiated, using the double ring service. The ceremony took place before the fireplace, in the living room, which was banked with palms and pink gladioli in huge wicker baskets on either side. "Dorothy Perkins" roses were used throughout the rooms. As the bridal party gathered in an upper staircase, Stanley Seiple, of the New England Conservatory of Music, Boston, Mass., presented a pleasing program, his selections including: "Romance," Grunseld; "To a Wild Rose," MacDowell; "Wedding Day," Grieg; "A Twilight Tale," Hopekirk. Miss Martha Vincent of Pittsburg sang, "O Promise Me," and another pretty song. The wedding party descended the stairs to the strains of the Lohengrin march. Mr. Lowry and his best man, Dr. W. J. Eberhart, of Connelville, Pa., a cousin of the bride, leading. The maid of honor, the bride's sister, Miss Clara A. Long, followed, wearing a lovely gown of pale blue crepe de chine, trimmed with pink tulle and silver lace, and carrying pink sweet peas and lilies of the valley, tied with pink ribbon. The bride came with her father, who gave her in marriage. Her exquisite bridal gown was fashioned of white Liberty satin and real lace, made with basque and court train. She wore a full length veil caught to her coiffure with a band of pearls. A bouquet of white roses with shower of lilies of the valley completed a picture of loveliness. Following felicitations, dinner was served for forty-five guests. The bride's table was centered with pink and white roses and pink shaded candles were effective. Seated at this special table were members of the bridal party, Rev. and Mrs. MacDonald, the musicians, Mr. Seiple, Miss Vincent, and the bride's parents. Tables for four accommodated the other guests, roses forming the decorations.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowry left for Chautauqua, N. Y., where they will spend the season at the Assembly Grounds where Mr. Lowry is second Concert-meister in the Chautauqua orchestra. Traveling, the bride wore a green faille silk suit with dainty hat of Georgette crepe and lace.

The bride is a graduate of Rayen high school and Dana's Institute, Warren. She is an accomplished pianist and a young woman of pleasing personality. Mr. Lowry is a violin artist. He also attended Dana's and during his stay there the attachment was formed which culminated in the marriage Thursday. Countless friends are deeply interested in their union and many handsome gifts and congratulations marked their wedding day.

Mr. and Mrs. David A. Seiple, Miss Clara Seiple, Earl, Frank, and Stanley Seiple, and Miss Mildred Thompson of Greenville, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Long, Sharon, Md. and Mrs. T. A. Long, New Castle; Mr. and Mrs. D. Seiple, Elizabeth, Robert and Marion Seiple, New Brighton; Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Bort-Kent; the Misses Florence and Blanche Stutsman, Johnstown, Pa.; Mrs. J. E. Eberhart, Dr. Eberhart, Miss Martha O. Vincent, Pittsburg, and David Seiple, Boston, Mass.; were included among the out-of-town guests.

AUSTRIANS FLEE RUSS APPROACH

Thousands of Civilians in Flight from Sty Towns.

VIENNA ADMITS BIG DEFEAT

Russians Capture Berestecz and Werben, Menacing Brody, Kovel, Lemberg and Other Galician Cities—Petrograd Reports Capture of River Passages—Berlin Claims One Repulse.

London, July 22.—Effective renewal of the Russian drive in the Volhynian region, with the passage of the River Sty, the capture of 1,600 prisoners, and the occupation of the two towns of Berestecz and Werben, is officially announced by the Russian war office and admitted in an official statement received from Vienna.

Berlin claims the repulse of Russian offensive actions in the Riga district, around Baranovitch and on the Sokol river, but reference to increased activity on the Lipa in the region of Werben indicates that the Russian gain there was of considerable moment. The Austrians claim only minor advantages in scattered actions in Bukovina.

Panic in Brody.

A dispatch from Milan to the London Telegraph says:

"According to news received from Hungary, a panic preceded the exodus of the population of Brody, where the Russians are expected. Eighteen thousand persons have left the town, only 100 families remaining. (It was in this section the advance took place.)

"Alarm has spread throughout Hungary, even political circles being deeply moved.

"Judge Peppenbergh of Radantz, describing the hasty evacuation of the town, in which he participated, estimates that half a million refugees from Bukovina have encamped in the woods of the Carpathians.

"A terrible panic occurred in Kimpolung, resulting in many deaths."

New Move on Kovel.

From the success of the Russian attacks on the Sty the entire district from Kovel to Lemberg, with those two important centers as well as the stronghold of Vladimir Volynski are more seriously menaced. With the passages of the Sty now in Russian hands any further advance in this region is believed to be a matter of hours at most.

Study of the situation leads to the belief that the Russians will now continue their blows against Kovel from the southeast, hoping to take that important railway center and so hamper the movement of Teuton reinforcements and supplies that Lemberg will be a comparatively easy victim.

Russ Capture Important Turk Town.

Petrograd, July 22.—The capture by Russian troops of the town of Gumushkaneh, forty-five miles south west of Trebizond in Turkish Armenia was announced by the war office.

The capture of Gumushkaneh marks a notable advance for the Russian Caucasus forces under Grand Duke Nicholas. Gumushkaneh is forty miles northwest of Baidur, the capture of which was reported by the Petrograd war office on July 16. It is about fifty miles directly north of Erzizhan, the objective of the Russian army which recently took Mamakhatun, fifty miles to the west.

Flood Victims Starving.

Asheville, N. C., July 22.—Food shortage in many sections of western North Carolina which were swept by Sunday's floods was reported and information here was that at some places the population actually faced starvation.

Walter Hines Page Gets Respite.

London, July 22.—Walter Hines Page, the American ambassador, has been granted a short leave of absence, and with Mrs. Page will leave on July 29 for the United States for a month's rest.

"Great Josephus! Jane!"

"What, Henry?"

"Can't we catch another mouse and drop it under the piano when she recovers?"—Boston Post.

Fearfully and Wonderfully Unmade.

Eight or nine women, assembled at luncheon, were discussing ailments and operations as eight or nine, or one or two, or sixty or seventy women will. The talk ran through angina pectoris, torpid liver, tuberculosis and kindred happy topics.

TAX AMENDMENT FACTS.

"In my opinion," writes Frank Mann, chairman of the Illinois tax amendment committee in the Prairie Farmers, "the pending tax amendment to the Illinois constitution should be adopted Nov. 7 by the people of Illinois, because, until it is adopted, the Illinois general assembly is powerless to provide equitable and just methods of taxation of modern forms of wealth and thereby equalize the burdens of visible property. The farmer has experienced the evils of double taxation, who knows of men possessing large amounts of hidden wealth in personal property tax in comparison to the tax he pays upon his land, and who realizes that that proportion of the burden borne by real property in Illinois is increasing constantly, will vote for the pending tax amendment next fall and urge his neighbors to do likewise."

With this preface Mr. Mann begins a reply to a criticism of the proposed amendment that appeared in the Prairie Farmer in May, written by Thos. C. Kerrick of Bloomington. Mr. Mann writes that he asked Douglas Sutherland, secretary of the Illinois tax amendment committee, to submit Mr. Kerrick's article to Harrison B. Riley, with a request that Mr. Riley give his opinion of Mr. Kerrick's criticism. Mr. Riley wrote the following letter, covering all points in the criticism.

I have at hand copy of the Prairie Farmer containing a discussion of the pending Illinois tax amendment by Thos. C. Kerrick.

The friends of tax reform seem to be between the upper and nether millstones because Mr. Kerrick claims the amendment is broad enough to authorize the legislature to exempt improvements on real estate from taxation, while on the other hand the advocates of single tax theory are fighting the amendment tooth and nail because, in their judgment, the amendment fails to accomplish that very purpose.

Mr. Kerrick's article makes a very keen analysis of the constitutional question involved, but arrives at what I consider to be a wrong conclusion for two reasons:

First, the subject matter of the pending amendment is taxation of personal property, and language used in the proposed amendment must relate to that subject.

It violates the most primary rules of construction to segregate a sentence from its context and base an argument thereon, as is illustrated by the very ancient contention that the Bible itself proved the non-existence of deity by quoting the detached phrase, "there is no God," when the whole phrase was, "the fool hath said in his heart there is no God."

The clause in the pending amendment in relation to exemptions can but relate to the subject matter of that amendment, to-wit: personal property, and is necessarily included in such amendment to avoid the possibility of a claim that an exemption from taxation is a contract which cannot be repealed.

Second, by the very terms of the amendment the power of the general assembly is extended over "the subject matter of the taxation of personal property shall be as complete and unrestricted as they would be if sections 1, 3, 9 and 10 of this article did not exist," plainly leaving these articles in force as to every other subject matter beside personal property and that the clause criticized by Mr. Kerrick follows as a proviso.

The courts of this state, and indeed all other responsible authorities, hold that a proviso modifies the subject matter immediately preceding and cannot however broad the language may be, extend to other subject matter in the same act.

Mr. Kerrick is quite right, however, in his contention that the legislature might under the amendment, exempt any class of personal property from taxation, or indeed all personal property, or make one rate of taxation on certain personal property and different rates on other classes of personal property, but his discovery is not surprising because that was the very purpose of the amendment.

It is very likely that if the legislature is correctly advised it will exempt some small amounts of household furniture and implements of labor and agriculture, and other trifling items, the taxation of which produces little revenue and much private annoyance and public expense.

It need not be feared that the legislature will abandon any source of revenue open to it by making unjust and sweeping exemptions of personal property from taxation, for the very substantial reason that the state needs and will always need the money.

It is much more to be feared that the general assembly will be influenced by gentlemen having only an impression as to taxation and will remain a current exercise, or that the class of personality will be driven from the state must be trusted to conserve the interests of the people, and it is up to this.

So long as we have representative government these representatives people to select a class of representatives deserving of such trust.

Mr. Mann adds that Connecticut, Rhode Island, Maryland, New York, Pennsylvania and Minnesota are among the states that have extended the powers of their legislatures in the way that it is sought to extend those of the Illinois legislature. Every other great industrial country in the world has abandoned the system in vogue in Illinois. So many millions in revenue have been produced by classified taxation that since 1880 the burden of taxation in New York upon real property has been reduced as from 87 in 1880 to 55 in 1913. Illinois, under its wornout system, compares thus: 67.69 in 1873; 69.52 in 1914; 70.16 in 1915. The reality burden is slowly rising in Illinois; it has rapidly diminished in New York and other states. Baltimore, under the law reducing rates on notes, stocks, bonds, etc., from $2.17% to 47% cents per $100 in one year increased the valuation of this property from $6,000,000 to $58,000,000 and more than doubled the revenues from this source. In 1915 these valuations had increased to $208,000,000, producing nearly nine times the revenues formerly obtained.

In these and other eastern states where the power of centralized wealth in great cities is greater than in Illinois, we see no tendency to exempt this vast wealth, but rather the effective taxation of it on a just basis, having some regard for the income and character of property taxed.

OATS HARVEST ON IN FULL SWAY IN LEE CO.

SEVERAL FARMERS CUT OATS THIS WEEK—ALL AT IT VERY SOON.

Oats harvest will be in full sway next week. Several Lee county farmers cut oats this week, the majority will enter the field Monday if weather is right. Farmers say the crop this year is good. Most of the corn is laid by, and the wheat is harvested.

In some counties south of here the farmers are threshing. Hay is in the mow and stack and the quality is good and the crop one of the best several years. The corn is not yet suffering for rain, but it cannot go much longer without it. In some parts of the county the corn is not good, owing to the fact that much low land had to be replanted. Continued dry weather will not harm the corn in low lands.

BLACKLIST WILL STAY IN FORCE

Lord Cecil States Position of British Government.

NOT UNDERSTOOD, HE SAYS

British Leader Declares His Nation Will Neither Add to Nor Withdraw. "Absurd to Allow British Subjects to Trade with Our Serious Enemies," He Asserts.

London, July 22.—Great Britain does not propose to add to the blacklist of American firms and has no intention of withdrawing or modifying its policy.

Lord Robert Cecil made this announcement in discussing the blacklist policy. He said:

"The British government decided it was absurd to allow British subjects to continue trading with certain firms who are regarded as serious enemies. To give two instances it is known when German raiders were in the Atlantic they obtained supplies from German concerns in South America.

Working with Germany.

"Again it is known that certain firms and people of North and South America made considerable subscriptions to the German war loan and some firms performed very extensive propaganda work in neutral countries. All we have done is to forbid British subjects trading with concerns who substantially are working with Germany, financially and commercially. It is no new policy. It began last summer in the Far East, where it answered very well, and we have reason to believe it inflicted considerable loss on the enemy.

"We later applied it to South America. Then came the question of applying it to the United States. We did not see how we could treat German firms there differently from those in Argentina. It always was our intention to apply it to the United States. There was no secret about it. I explained it thoroughly in commons when the bill passed."

"Not for Friend."

Asked why certain German firms in the United States were not blacklisted because they subscribed to the allies' war loan, Lord Cecil replied:

"We certainly do not propose to put our friends on the blacklist. It is intended only for our enemies. I do not think we should blacklist firms unless they are regarded as outposts of the German empire. All we have done, I repeat, is to forbid British subjects trading with firms—no matter whether with German names or not—that we think any decent Britisher ought not to do business with."

Not Understood.

When told that the blacklist had occasioned much criticism and resentment in America, the minister of blockade said:

"I think it is because it is not understood. It has not produced the dire results which some people threatened."

Asked concerning the report of large additions to the blacklist, Lord Cecil said:

"There are eighty names, not firms, on the blacklist, and it is not proposed to add to them."

PRISONER WINS NOBLE PRIZE

Dr. Rob't. Barany of Vienna Is Freed from Russian Camp.

Vienna, July 22.—Entering the war as a volunteer surgeon little known outside the circle of specialists of his own class. Dr. Robert Barany of Vienna, after fifteen months of captivity in Russia, has at last returned as an "exchange invalid" to find himself famous as the Nobel prize winner in medicine.

The knowledge which was the basis of his prize-winning book was gained chiefly as surgeon in Persia; the book itself was written in captivity; it has brought him 400,000 crowns in money; and it played no small part in securing his release from Turkey.

MISS OPPORTUNITY YOU MISS SUCCESS

Waiting For the Seventh Wave Is Foolish.

WISCONSIN FIRM'S SCHEME.

An Up to Date Merchant Who Successfully Fought Fire With Fire—Local Dealers Request Consumers to Give Them an Opportunity to Figure. Can and Will Meet Competition.

[Copyrighted, 1914, by Thomas J. Sullivan.]
If you want to succeed in the world you must make your own opportunities as you go on.

The man who waits for the seventh wave to toss him on dry land will find that the seventh wave is a long time in coming. You can commit no greater folly than to sit by the roadside until some one comes along and invites you to ride with him to wealth or influence.

Business men, local and otherwise, in the entire country are desirous of increasing and extending their business, and if they did not care to do this they would not be in business.

Can Successfully Cope.

It is doubtful if there be a local retailer in the country who could not successfully cope with the mail order and catalogue retailer would he but try. This the local merchant may not know, but nevertheless it is an absolute fact.

There is a retail firm in a town in Wisconsin which conspicuously displays upon its counters one of the catalogues of the largest Chicago mail order houses, upon the cover of which is pasted a notice that it will furnish any article advertised in the catalogue as cheaply as the buyer can secure the articles from Chicago, and it lives up to the advertisement attached to the very letter.

Mail Order House Seconds.

The substantial local merchant knows well that the cheap stoves sold by the catalogue mail order houses are light-weight stoves; that the iron beds shown in the advertisement matter as massive frames with strong corner posts and heavy crossbars are light, frail castings, commonly known to the trade as "seconds," which no honest or reliable furniture dealer would keep in his stock because he could not sell them to people who were given an opportunity to inspect the goods before purchasing.

It is only on very rare occasions that patrons of a mail order house ever get the worth of their money when they buy from the pictures in the catalogue, while, on the other hand, the local retailer, if he understands his business, buys his stock direct from the manufacturers and jobbers who have a reputation at stake and who supply goods of quality to their direct representatives, the retail merchants, throughout the country.

Prize Their Reputations.

The responsible high grade manufacturer and wholesaler will not under any condition or circumstance sell their goods to the catalogue retailer at any price. Many instances are known where catalogue houses secured by trickery a quantity of staple goods of standard make and advertised them as "specials" at ridiculously low prices. The manufacturers, in order to protect their reputations and interests, necessarily had orders sent in for the entire stock or quantity of the articles through persons in their employ. They did not propose to have their articles, which were standard, advertised by the side of inferior articles of light weight and of decidedly cheap construction.

A Vast Difference.

There are numberless articles which the catalogue house advertises as the best on the market, among which are paints, and it often agrees to furnish an impossible guarantee with this class of goods. However, it is very noticeable that it never attempts to ship its paints into states that require a printed copy of the analysis of the contents of the package.

The answer to this, of course, is that the goods are not as represented in the catalogue. The up to date local merchant, of course, is conversant with these facts and can explain them to his customers if given an opportunity, and he can also, if he understands his business thoroughly, explain the vast difference between the goods sold by the catalogue house and those sold by him.

Articles Challenge Explanations.

The cheap, flashy, flimsy article can never stand alongside of the honest, reliable article without challenging an explanation.

The business man who cannot meet this demand upon him is not up to date, and his education regarding the line of goods he carries should be touched up.

If the home town consumers are alive and awake to their own interest they can begin to educate the local merchants by demanding from them the information concerning the differ-

MORE ABOUT THE BRIDGE

A modern, concrete bridge, electric lighted, smooth as a floor, substantial and beautiful to look at, would help to complete the splendid equipment, Dixon as one of the most progressive and well managed cities in the west, is acquiring.

It would not take away from any one street or locality of the town, but would add to the whole, a much needed improvement.

It is desired by both the local and surrounding territory on account of the inadequacy of the Galena Avenue bridge, which will always draw a large share of transportation. This is not a question coming for the first time for Dixon people to settle—but as old as civilization—for all cities having a dividing water course, have added bridges for better transportation and accommodation for centuries past. It seems to be Dixon's turn to consider this question.

A CITIZEN

Dixon Telegraph:
I wish through your column to call the attention of the citizens of Dixon to the street paving now being done on Depot avenue between Third and Fourth streets streets, against which I protested when the scheme was first started.

A good macadam street with a good quality of crushed stone 18 inches deep is being plowed up to be replaced by brick at a large expense opposite and south of my house which would have lasted 10 or 15 years. The whole street could have been repaired at a cost perhaps of $25.

The unnecessary expense for which there was no public necessity was not wanted by a large majority of the property owners.

In the cause of justice, I am
Very truly yours,
O. B. DODGE.

Miss Nellie Preston went to Nachusa this morning to spend the day with her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Jennings of Ashton motored here last evening and attended the Family Theatre.

THERE WAS NO ANSWER.

The Lady Lecturer Smiled Indulgently at a Laced and Coiffured Audience.

The lady lecturer smiled upon her laced and coiffured audience.
"We must coalesce our nebulosities," she said in her full, rich tones. "The mentality which is disintegrated by disuse exerts a chilling influence on the ethics of the beautiful. Let us become supple." She skipped lightly from one foot to the other. "Let us curve." She bent backward with her hands on her hips. "Let us enjoy the plastic pose." She stood on one foot with the other raised. Her arms were extended and her head was very much on one side. "We cannot do better than go to the Greeks," she said.
She paused to take breath and a stout lady with no waist at all took advantage of the intermission and said she didn't believe there were any Greeks in her neighborhood.

The lecturer smiled indulgently. "Figuratively speaking, my dear madam," she said to the stout lady. "I allude to the Greeks of Phidias and Praxiteles. But let us not lean alone upon the ancient marbles or the ancient canvas, let us rather exalt the ego." She paused. "I will be pleased to answer any questions that concern the mingled uplift of a harmonious union of mind and beauty."

Whereupon a scraggy lady, in the front row, took advantage of the opportunity. "How old are you?" she demanded. But there was no answer.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

QUEEN THIS TIME.

"If I hadn't drawn that queen I might have had a straight flush."
"That's right, always blame the woman."—Buffalo News.

Legal Profundity.

A newly made magistrate was gravely absorbed in a formidable document. Raising his keen eyes, he said to the man who stood patiently awaiting the award of justice: "Officer, what is this man charged with?"
"Bigotry, your worship. He's got three wives," replied the officer.
The new justice rested his elbows on the desk and placed his finger tips together. "Officer," he said, somewhat sternly, "what's the use of all this education, all these evening schools, all the technical classes and what not? Please remember, in any future like case, that a man who has married three wives has not committed bigotry but trigonometry. Proceed."—Lincoln State Journal.

Tantalizing.

In searching for the location of the gas range Mr. Stubb had stumbled over the kitchen table.
"Oh, John," called Mrs. Stubb, sweetly, "I know what's the trouble. You need what they have on the bathtubs."
"What's that?" demanded Mr. Stubb, rubbing his bruised toe.
"Why, a range finder."
And what Mr. Stubb said about feminine wit used at wrong times would be a caution.—Boston Post.

Doctor—You are very bad indeed. You must go home at once, and I shall have to visit you three times a day.

Patient—I shall have to go on the club, then.
Doctor—A club patient, eh? Why didn't you say so? Oh, there's nothing much the matter. Just drink a glass of cold water night and morning, that's all. You'll be all right then.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Just Trust.

"What shall we say of Senator Smugg?"
"Just say he was always faithful to his trust."
"And shall we mention the name of the Trust?"—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Lesson from the Past.

"Well, who do you think you are?" asked David, unafraid.
"I am the man higher up," gruffly answered Goliath, looking contemptuously down upon him.
But David got him.—Chicago Tribune.

Mrs. Jacob Gaulrapp of Sterling was a visitor in Dixon last evening. Sheriff Phillips and Deputy Sheriff Schoenholz went to Mendota today to serve papers.

Dramatic Notes

PRINCESS THEATRE.

Tonight the Princess theatre will present Grace de Carlton and J. H. Gilmour in a photodrama entitled "The Spirit of '61."

Grace de Carlton, who sprang into fame over night by her work in the Thanhouer Mutual masterpiece de luxe "Betrayed," and whose acting in the subsequent release, "The Traffic Cop," earned her a position in the front ranks of the younger generation of actresses, has the stellar role in the "Spirit of '61," in three acts.

The picture was produced by Fred Kelsey, and the supporting cast, consisting of J. H. Gilmour, George Marlo, Samuel Niblack and Charles Turner, is extremely competent.

Also two fine comedies entitled "Raining Randal's Reputation" and "Bungling Bill's Dream."

Sunday night you will find an excellent program consisting of the following: "The Scorpion's Sting," a society drama of modern conditions in the big cities, pointing strong morals throughout the story in which a released convict sorely tempted sells himself to the devil. Also "Wanted, a Husband," with Neal Burns and Betty Compson in the roles, a big scream from start to finish.

Notice: Thursday, Chapters 1 and 2 of "Secret of the Submarine" will be shown.

ARE YOU A NECK-UPPER?

W. J. Piffington, editor of the Merchants Trade Journal, in an editorial, in the June issue of the publication, says:

"You can hire a man to work from his neck down for about a dollar and a half a day, but try to hire a few men from their necks up and note the difference in the compensation. One draws wages, the other a princely salary. It is vastly more important that we be neck-uppers than neck-downers."

FIFTY DOLLARS

In an emergency, a little bit goes a long way. Have you ever seen the time when Fifty Dollars looked pretty big?

It may not be very much but Fifty Dollars saved is a lot more than a Thousand Dollars spent.

Nearly everyone who tries, can save Fifty Dollars the first year, after the first Fifty, the second Fifty will come easier.

The system used in this bank will help you save.

HAVE ROSY CHEEKS AND FEEL FRESH AS A DAISY—TRY THIS!

Says glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast washes out poisons.

To see the tinge of healthy bloom in your face, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, to wake up, without a headache, backache, coated tongue or a nasty breath, inflect to feel your best, day in and day out, just try inside-bathing every morning for one week.

Before breakfast each day drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it as a harmless means of washing from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening, and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at the drug store but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, sweetens and freshens the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the blood and internal organs. Those who are subject to constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, rheumatic twinges, also those whose skin is sallow and complexion pallid, are assured that one week of inside bathing will have them both looking and feeling better in every way.

GLASS OF SALTS IF YOUR KIDNEYS HURT

Eat less meat if you feel Backache or have Bladder trouble—Salts fine for Kidneys.

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation.
Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-well to follow the ideas and plans of

How the French Invest

The French have long been known as the shrewdest investors in the world. In France people of small incomes buy a few shares of stock, or bonds, and pay for them in easy monthly installments.

Some time ago this plan was introduced in America and already over 30% of the Stock Exchange transactions are in "odd lots." This shows how safe and profitable people of small inand investment.

You may buy one share or

Alkali in Soap
Bad For the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulsumed coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily,
removing every particle of dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsumed coconut oil at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

I.B. COUNTRYMAN MAY HAVE TO SELL HERD

of the best blood he could get into his herd, and he had them up to their knees in one of the best bluegrass pastures I ever saw. Countryman has given it a coating of rock phosphate that has aided the manure in forcing the growth of the bluegrass. He has 30 acres of alfalfa, too, and thinks there is no feed like it.

Spotlessly Clean.

"The milk is made into butter, and this is packed into two-pound cartons and sold to private customers in Dixon, bringing, at the time I was there, 36 cents a pound. Everything about the dairy house and barn was spotlessly clean. The milk is strained through two thicknesses of heavy cheese cloth and one of cotton batten. The barn is ventilated by the King system, so thoroughly that in ten years Mr. Countryman has not had a case of tuberculosis.

"Countryman has taken great pride in fixing up his place as well as improving his herd. The barns are equipped with concrete floors and metal stalls and stanchions. The barnyard is well drained and covered with clud-ers. A carrier conveys the manure across the yard and dumps it outside.
Fresh water is supplied to each stall.
The house is equipped with all modern conveniences, though Countryman does not live there himself.
Both house and barn are lighted by electricity.

Can't Get Manager.

"But there is the shadow of a tragedy over this place. Countryman is an old man now, and no longer able to manage the place actively himself.
He has not been successful in getting a younger man to take the burden off his shoulders, and he has no sons of his own. So he thinks he will have to dispose of the herd he has built up so painstakingly, and perhaps sell the farm.

"Every cow but three or four has been raised on the place," he said.

AMERICANS UPON SHIP TORPEDOED
Grain Carrier Yzer, Bound to French Port, Sunk.
SOME OF CREW U. S. CITIZENS

Two British Ships Are Torpedoed. Austria Asks Further Details from Washington on Petrolite Attack. Still Sticks to Its Own Commander's Version.

Portland, Me., July 22.—Three Americans—George Ivey of Philadelphia, Richard Neiligan of Boston and Rosseneau of Oldtown, Me.—were members of the crew of the British steamship Yzer, reported from London as having been sunk. The Yzer carried a cargo of 257,730 bushels of oats and was commanded by Captain William McL. Hunter.

Was On Voyage from United States. London, July 22.—Lloyd's reports that the British steamship Yzer has been sunk. The Yzer sailed June 15 from Portland, Me., for Certe, France. Its gross tonnage was about 3,300.

Steamer Grangemoor Sunk. Algiers, Algeria, July 22.—The British steamship Grangemoor, 3,198 tons gross and owned by the Moor line of Newcastle, has been sunk by a submarine. Its crew was landed.

Austria Seeks Data on Petrolite. Washington, July 22.—The state department received from Austria-Hungary, through Ambassador Penfield at Vienna, a request for additional details regarding the attack by an Austrian submarine upon the American tank steamer Petrolite. Mr. Penfield's dispatch gave no indication as to whether the Vienna government intended to comply with the American demands for an apology, punishment of the submarine commander and reparation for the damage done by the submarine's shell fire.

Officials of the department declined to divulge the nature of the information sought, on the ground that negotiations at this time were confidential. A reply will go forward soon.

What Austrians Claim. The Austrian claim has been that the submarine commander fired on the Petrolite by mistake and that later the master of the tanker voluntarily furnished the submarine with provisions, however, that he was shelled without provocation and compelled, under vigorous protest, to surrender a part of the supplies, which were sufficient only to take him to port.

Will Sink Hospital Ships. London, July 22.—A Reuters' Petrograd dispatch says that the Russian minister of foreign affairs has informed the Turkish government, through Spain, that Russia will henceforth disregard the principles of The Hague convention as far as Turkish hospital ships are concerned.

The Russian hospital ship was sunk by a submarine in the Black sea last March. There were a large number of wounded on board at the time and 115 lives were lost. It was at first stated that the ship had been sunk by a German submarine, but that Turkey later accepted the responsibility, declaring that the ship did not fly the Red Cross flag and was mistaken for a transport.

On July 9 the Vperloide, which took the place of the Portugal, was torpedoed and sent to the bottom while on its way to Batum to embark wounded soldiers. The official report of the disaster made no mention of loss of lives or of the nationality of the submarine.

WAR BRIDES NOT IN ORDER

Men Who Married After Being Called to Service Can't Beg Off.

San Antonio, Tex., July 22.—War brides will not get their husbands back under the "dependent relatives" order, General Funston says that he will not dismis from the service national guardsmen whose applications and affidavits showed they had married after being called to the federal service. General Funston has made an iron-clad rule not to approve the application for muster out from soldiers who joined their organizations after the president called out the national guard.

BAY CITY TRIBUNE IS SOLD

Goes to Booth Publishing Co., Established 40 Years Ago.

Bay City, July 22.—The people of Bay City were surprised to read an announcement in the Bay City Tribune, to the effect that its ownership had passed to the Booth Publishing company, owners of daily newspapers in Grand Rapids, Muskegon, Saginaw, Flint, Jackson and Bay City.

The Tribune was established as an evening paper forty-four years ago, and was then transferred to the morning field. It was Bay City's first daily newspaper.

Roumanians Emigrating. Helena, Mont., July 22.—Heavy immigration of Roumanians from Montana, all going east, was reported here. When asked whether Roumania had summoned her reserves, the men would not discuss the matter.

THIS IS CERTAIN
THE PROOF THAT DIXON READERS CANNOT DENY

What could furnish stronger evidence of the efficiency of any remedy than the test of time? Thousands of people testify that Doan's Kidney Pills have brought lasting results.

Home endorsement should prove undoubtedly the merit of this remedy. Years ago your friends and neighbors testified to the relief they had derived from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. They now confirm their testimonials. They say time has completed the test.

C. J. Kirkham, 522 Peoria Ave., Dixon, says: "I suffered from pains across my back for a long time. I didn't think the trouble was caused by disordered kidneys, but when a friend recommended Doan's Pills, I got a box at Leake Bros. Drug store. They completely rid me of the backache and all other symptoms of kidney complaint."

OVER THREE YEARS LATER, Mr. Kirkham said: "Doan's Kidney Pills cured me of kidney disease and the cure has been permanent."

VERY TRUE.

The Easterner—Your new town is all right, but you have very poor fire protection.
The Westerner—Well, Rome wasn't built in a day.
The Easterner—Yes, but she was about burned down in a day.

Not in Haste.

A clergyman in the north of Scotland, very homely in his address, chose for his text a passage in the Psalms, "I said in my haste all men are liars." "Ay," premised the minister by way of introduction, "ye said it in your haste, David, did ye? Gin ye had ben here ye might ha' said it at your leisure, my man."

What They All Say.

A man went to see a small baby. "He's a fine fellow, isn't he?" he said when he thought he had to say something. "How old is it now? Do her teeth bother him much? He does look like you, doesn't he? Every one says it does."—Acheson Globe.

Piece Work.

Customer—What do you mean by that sign, "Shaving pessimists 25 cents?"
Barber—That's because it takes more time to shave a man with a lame face.—Judge.

Brain Wearing Professions.

A scientist has gathered from statistics that the military and naval professions most quickly wear out the brains. Out of 100,000 soldiers and sailors 199 were confirmed lunatics. Next came the liberal professions, artists heading the list, followed closely by lawyers, and more distantly by doctors, clergymen, literary men, and civil servants. In 100,000 about 177 of these go mad. Of domestic servants and laborers 155 out of 100,000 go to the asylum, and of mechanics only sixty-six. The sanest people, apparently, are commercial men, of whom forty-two in 100,000 go mad.—Exchange.

His Means of Wealth.

In some parts of Ireland it is the custom of the farmers to deposit money in the bank in the joint names of husband and wife, so that when one dies the survivor can draw out the money without the legal formalities. To a farmer who made application for money deposited for himself and wife, the manager of the bank asked: "Why, Pat, how can this be? It is not much more than a year since you came with an application on the death of your wife." "Well, your honor," was the reply, "I'm a bit lucky wid wimmen."

Valuable Gold Beetles.

In Central America the most remarkable gold beetles in the world are found. The head and wing cases are brilliantly polished with a lustre as of gold itself. To sight and touch they have all the seeming of metal. Oddly enough, another species from the same region has the appearance of being wrought in solid silver, freshly burnished. These gold and silver beetles have a market value. They are worth from twenty-five to fifty dollars each.

Element of Danger to Society.

The real danger to modern institutions is not in the difference in the size of fortunes or that some live in mansions and others in huts. The real danger is that the current of sympathy which should circulate freely among the entire citizenship is obstructed.

The Hand Behind the Fashions.
But for the inventive faculty of man in the matter of feminine clothing, how would fair woman exist or enjoy life? asks the Drapery Times.

It Was This Way.

"I suppose the father gave the bride away."
"Not exactly. He gave a million away, and threw her in."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Unapproachable.

Tall Student. Your father is touchy, isn't he?
Short Student—No; that's the trouble. You can't touch him at all."—Boston Post.

HIS FIXED INCOME.

Dick Sutton Explained to the Court How He Obtained It.

A Southern Congressman who formerly practiced law in Mississippi tells of an amusing case he once tried in that State. He was then a student in the office of his uncle, a Col. Martin, who figured in local politics.

The main figure in the trial was a lazy dandy named Dick Sutton, arrested at the instance of his wife, who alleged that he contributed nothing to her support and refused to work.

During the examination of Sutton the young lawyer asked:

"Dick, have you any fixed income?"

Sutton was puzzled by the term. Counsel explained that the expression meant a certainty, money paid not for odd jobs, but for steady employment; in other words, a compensation at stated intervals on which one could absolutely rely.

Upon the conclusion of counsel's remarks the dandy's face brightened.

"I think I has a fixed income, sah," said he.

"And what is this fixed income?" was the next question.

"Well, sah," answered Dick, with a broad grin in the direction of Col. Martin, "de Colonel dere allers give me fo' dollars an' a sack o' flour on 'lection day!"—Tit-Bits.

Kentucky Buttermilk.

Two Kentucky colonels were showing an Englishman what a wonderful country the south is. When the Briton had traveled from Baltimore to New Orleans, and from the Atlantic to the Mississippi, he said: "Yes, the South is a fine country, but you have no industries here."

"No industries," retorted Col. Smith, with indignation. "Why, suh, Col. Robinson in Kentucky has a dairy where he produces a million pounds of butter and a million pounds of cheese a month."

"Impossible!" said the Englishman.

Col. Smith turned to his fellow for corroboration.

"I don't know how much butter and cheese Col. Robinson produces a month," said the second Kentuckian, "but I do know he has twelve saw mills and he runs them all with buttermilk."

A Born Journalist.

Judge Alvin Duvall, while Judge of the Kentucky Court of Appeals, in company with Squire Johnson, a very large man—the Judge being much smaller—once called a political meeting in Lexington, which for lack of adequate advertisement was attended by themselves only. The distinguished Judge, possessing a fund of quiet humor, finally began to write a notice, reading aloud as he wrote: "At a large and respectable meeting held in this city yesterday"—

"Stop there a minute, Judge!" exclaimed the Squire in surprise, you wouldn't publish a notice that this was a large and respectable meeting?"

"Why not," quietly rejoined the Judge. "Are you not large and am I not respectable?"—New York World.

HE KNEW HER.

Her Flance—I've called to ask for your daughter's hand in marriage. Her Father—Has she accepted you?

Her Flance—Yes, sir.
Her Father—Then why do you come and worry me with your troubles?

Woman-Like.

"I hate him! I think he is the meanest man I ever met."

"Gracious, Jeanette! What is the trouble?"

"Why, he told me he loved me devotedly and I told him it would be impossible for me to love him in return. The poor fellow looked so downhearted I told him to try and forget me."

"Well?"

"Boo-hoo! He—he did."—Boston Post.

Graft.

"The directors of the road were a precious lot of grafters."

"You don't say so!"

"Yes, every last man of them had his appendix removed and charged the cost to operating expenses."—Puck.

Honor and Health.

"The Cross of the Legion is a wonderful thing for health."

"How's that?"

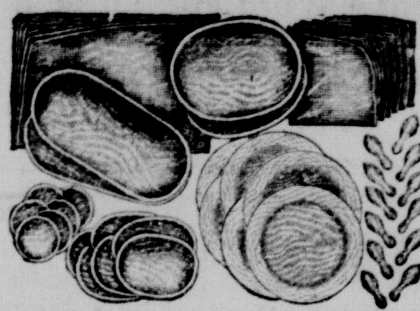

"There's nothing like it to encourage long promenades in the park."—Fliegende Blätter.

Carries On.

Woggs—So young Saphead and his father are carrying on the business?
Boggs—Yes. The old man does the business while young Saphead does the carrying on.—Puck.
